

Andrew Jackson to Amos Kendall, May 15, 1843, from Correspondence of Andrew Jackson. Edited by John Spencer Bassett.

class=MsoNormal>TO AMOS KENDALL.

Hermitage, May 15, 1843.

My d'r Sir, Yours of the 1st inst is recd. and altho in bad condition, I endeavour to give you a sketch, tho imperfect, from Major Crawfords to Church, 4 miles, from Church to W. Crawfords on Cain creek 5 miles, to Maj. Thompsons 21/2 or 3 miles. I have marked the road from Crawfords to Thompsons, black line, the road the British were in, in dotted lines, 0243 219 lead them thro his field instead of round the plantation, so that he might discover their approach, which he did, and made his escape on horseback, swimming the Creek.

This is one of my days for headache and unfit to write. with my best wishes to you and yours

Your friend Sincerely
